

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Reference: Amer Alchama
Wismar, 18. October 2019

This is to certify that Amer Alchama was a student of the Masters Course in Architectural Lighting Design at the University of Wismar/Germany. I have known him for the past 3 years and have tutored a number of his semester projects including the Master Thesis, which was one of the best from all. Amer Alchama is a sincere and hard-working student and executes all his assignments with absolute commitment and devotion. He is a thorough lighting design student with excellent team-work skills.

He was always punctual and extremely reliable. His calm and friendly manner made him a pleasant and helpful student. His interest in architectural lighting design is backed by his continuing efforts to expand his well founded knowledge.

As one of the responsible Professors of the Master Program in Architectural Lighting Design, I would strongly recommend Amer Alchama as a competent, committed and friendly individual.

I wish Amer Alchama every success in his young career that will help him becoming a highly capable and professional lighting designer.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me directly, also by phone.

Yours sincerely
